

Killingworth 350th Anniversary

2017 Events

Updated Jan. 25, 2017

New Historical Publication Available for sale now at the Town Hall! A wonderful resource to guide us through our celebratory year. Only $5.00 Timeline of the History of Killingworth, Connecticut, 1600-2016 by Thomas L. Lentz, Municipal Historian

- January—Historical postcards of George Dupree—Killingworth Library Display Case
- January 31- Marty Podskoch CCC and the history of Camp Roosevelt. CT CCC Camp book and book signing Firehouse 7 PM (snow date Feb. 21)
- Feb. 15 Writing Your Life's Story, Dawn Hoffman,— “your life is worth saving—one story at a time.” 6:30 PM Library
- March—Publication of Commemorative Booklet—Chamber of Commerce
- February 21, Snow date for Camp Roosevelt talk
- April Cowboy Valley Memorabilia- Library Display Case
- March 8-“The Not-So-Good Life Colonial Housewife,” Velya Jancz Urban-- Women's History Month --Firehouse
- April 7 Cowboy Valley Program HK Middle School, 7 PM location Dupree, Dan Perkins and subcommittee. Lobby displays--KWO
- April 11, 18, 25 Book Discussion—World War I, A Farewell to Arms, Phil Devlin—Library
- May-- 300th and 325th Celebration Memorabilia Library Display Case
- May 7, 4 PM Ecumenical Service, traditional dancing, Maypole—Congregational Church
- May—Proclamations for Naming Day, rededication of plaque, sister city proclamations
- May 23 Killingworth Historical Vignettes—Phil Devlin
- June, July, Aug., Sept. 2nd Saturdays during Farm Markets Armchair reminiscing program – KHS
- Clark Coe Killingworth Images and American Folk Art Date TBD
- June—Historical Killingworth dolls and wooden house images created by Sandy Smith from the collections of the Library and Cathy Perry
- July— Date TBD Killingworth Follies Program. Sally Riblet, Mark White
- June 3—Launch of Scavenger Hunt
- June 10 Farmers Market, Scavenger Hunt conclusion
- July/August-- July, Aug., 2nd Saturdays during Farm Markets Armchair reminiscing program – KHS
- September 2 Parade and Town Picnic, Parmelee Farm—Lions Club, Greg Wind and Michelle Adametz
 - Award certificates to winners of KES contests
 - Pequot program To be confirmed
 - Genealogy booth—??
- Sept.- 2nd Saturday during Farm Markets Armchair reminiscing program – KHS