

Killingworth 350th Anniversary 2017 Events

- June--Historical Killingworth dolls and wooden house images created by Sandy Smith, Library Display Case
- June-- Top Dog month—Maybe your dog will be get to wear the lucky number 350 on his collar all year! License your dog at the Town Hall
- June 10--Farmers Market, July 8, August 12--During Farm Markets-- Armchair reminiscing– Parmelee Farmhouse, KHS
- August 3-- "The Killingworth Follies Revisited, a whimsical review of Killingworth History set to music" HK Middle School 7 PM
- August 24—Al Katz, Lecture on Clark Coe’s Killingworth Images and Folk Art, HK Middle School 7 PM
- September 2—Parade--10 AM and Town Picnic-- 12 Noon, Parmelee Farm
- Sept.13, Sept. 21, and Sept 27-- Lecture Series on Native American Life in Connecticut 7 PM, Firehouse, Lucianne Lavin, Institute for American Indian Studies (IAIS) Sponsored by the Killingworth Foundation-- Call the Library to sign up--860-663-2000.

Updated June 15, 2017

New Historical Publication Available for sale now at the Town Hall! Timeline of the History of Killingworth, Connecticut, 1600-2016 by Thomas L. Lentz, Municipal Historian