Historic Review Committee Friday, September 2, 2022
11:00 a.m. Via GoTo Meeting

In attendance: E. Disbrow, L. Hogarty, B. Dodson, D. Rich (seated alternate), Town Historian T. Lentz
Absent: J. Hutchins, G. Judge

1. The meeting was called to order at 11:00 a.m.
2. Approval of minutes: Hogarty moved to approve the minutes of July 1, 2022 as submitted.
Voting in favor: Disbrow, Rich, Hogarty Opposed: none Motion carried.
3. Upcoming applications: No pending applications. There was brief discussion about upcoming renovations to the town barn. An article on the history of the barn was proposed. Rich provided some new background information on the structure. There was brief discussion about the recently sold Saw Mill Hollow property and whether, if improvements to any of the historic buildings on site are sought, the new Historic Structures regulation might apply.
4. Titus Coan birthplace
Disbrow will contact new owner of the Titus Coan's birthplace site and will alert them to the historic significance of the property. Its history was briefly discussed. If the new owner is amenable, the next meeting of this committee will be held there.
5. Website update
The town website is being redesigned. Several possible improvements to the Historic Review Committee webpage were discussed.
6. Outreach projects
  - The Post and Beam display has been removed from the Library case. Hogarty will see if the committee can reserve a recurring time slot for future displays.
  - An antique display case has been placed in the common area of Town Hall for this committee's use. Possible rotating exhibits were discussed.
  - There was discussion about using the walls of Town Hall conference rooms as gallery space to promote old structures in town.
  - Coordination of these and other activities with the Killingworth Historical Society was discussed.
7. Media outreach: Broader media outreach, including the Source, Haddam-Killingworth News, and other media was discussed.
8. Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at 11:42.

Respectfully submitted by Elizabeth Disbrow on 9/8/2022
